

ENDEAVORERS OF WORLD MEETING

Eight Thousand Delegates Present at Opening Session in Atlantic City.

PRESIDENT CLARK SPEAKS

Aplause Greeted His Reference to International Pact of Peace.

Atlantic City, N. J., July 6.—Eight thousand delegates crowded into the front auditorium of the Million Dollar Pier to-night at the opening session of the International Christian Endeavor convention. The feature was the annual address of President E. Clark. He was interrupted frequently by applause, his reference to an international peace pact with the English-speaking people combining to lead the way, was the hit of his speech. Mr. Clark said in part:

"The great advance of recent days, which proves that the divine favor rests upon the Christian Endeavor movement, should only be an incentive to make our societies better in every way, that we may be worthy of His continued blessing. As the motto of our Increase Campaign at the last convention was 'Enlargement,' I propose that this year it should be 'Efficiency.'"

"Let me suggest a few lines of achievement which I think are within the bounds of our accomplishment during the twenty-four months to come. First, you will see, all along the line of the providential development of Christian Endeavor, I would only ask you to enter the doors of God open to us."

"We have become in the broadest sense, more than ever during these years past, an international organization. In every land and beneath the sun the name 'Christian Endeavor' is known, and its principles are acknowledged. Almost without knowing it, certainly without much human guidance, we have become a worldwide brotherhood that embraces every race and religion."

For Peace of World.
"What, then, is more natural or more important than that we should stand in every land for the fellowship of the nations and the peace of the world? What organization has a better chance of a more imperative call to unite the future leaders of the religious world in a pact that can never be broken by the hideous god of war?"

"This is peculiarly the year to press the peace idea. President Taft has uttered his ringing note that has aroused the echoes in every land. Sir Edward Grey and the leaders of both great English parties have seconded his brave words. Endeavors in many lands have already expressed their gratitude that some statesman dare utter every question of modern importance to arbitration. British Endeavorers are peculiarly enthusiastic over the possibilities of a compact which shall unite English-speaking peoples in an indissoluble treaty. Let this convention go on record with equal urgency, and let these two years to come mark a great advance the world over in promoting the fellowship of mankind so far as Christian Endeavor can promote it."

"Our duty to promote the fellowship of the churches as well as of the nations must never be forgotten or minimized. But our society has not only relations to every nation and denomination, but its relations to State, county and city are equally important. An Endeavorer must never forget that he is a citizen, and he is not a good citizen unless he is a good citizen. Our State and local Endeavorers are year growing in value and influence, and should receive the wisest and most energetic guidance."

"But unions for world, nation, State, city or county are but expressions of the fellowship, and furnish us opportunities for service. The most important work of the individual Endeavorer is done in his own society, under the direction of his own church and pastor."

"Shall, then, be our ambitions and our efforts for the millennium which is before us?"

"1. As an international organization, the promotion of world-wide peace."

"2. As an interdenominational organization, a still wider fellowship of all young Christians."

"3. As State organizations, field secretaries who will promote our principles and our fellowship in every section."

"4. As a local organization—
"a. A campaign of education in every society.
"b. A campaign of efficiency, promoted by careful rating of faithful service in every society."

"c. A simple form for opening and closing our meetings in every society, which shall emphasize our unity and demonstrate our fellowship."

"Never for a moment would I forget, or have you forget, the source of our strength. Ours is a religious society and it prospers only as such a society. Hundreds of young people's societies have been born, have dwindled and died within the last thirty years. They have never gripped the hearts of the young people for long or commended themselves to the church at large, because the religious idea involved in the pledge, the prayer meeting, the consecration meeting and the committee was left out or minimized. They have been young people's societies, some times young people's societies of endeavor, but not young people's societies of Christian Endeavor, and so they died."

have had no long life or wide acceptance.

"While I believe in the utmost flexibility of Christian Endeavor and its ability to adapt itself to all conditions and to incorporate within itself everything that young people need for their religious training, let us never lose sight of our cardinal principles."

"Let me repeat it. Ours is a religious society. We stand for training the youth along four great lines—unspoken acknowledgment of Christ, constant service for Christ, loyalty to Christ's church, fellowship with Christ's people. Whatever features we introduce or omit, let us not forget or minimize these features, which really spell Christian Endeavor, which for thirty years have made it increasingly successful and which have caused it to find a home in every land beneath the sun."

Two Dangers.
"There are two dangers to be guarded against. First, a narrow exclusiveness which would make the society merely a prayer meeting, with a very narrow round of duties for a few of the spiritually gifted; and, on the other hand, an unintelligent inclusiveness, which, for the sake of numbers, prestige, adopts every young people's society, the belittling of perhaps crowding out the very things which Christian Endeavor was established to maintain, until at last, as one has graphically expressed it, 'the guest has eaten up the host.'"

"Against both of these dangers we have one great safeguard. It is found in our pledge, which is both inclusive and exclusive, including whatever Christ, the Master, would like to have us do, yet limiting our society and defining it as promoting in any way and on any basis the distinctively religious life of young people."

The report of William Shaw, general secretary, submitted to-night, showed an increase of over a million members since July, 1909, in the United States. His declaration that China had recruited 351 societies during the same period created interest, as did his plea for the spiritual welfare of the immigrant, the betterment of Sunday labor conditions and the success of the fight against immoral moving pictures."

Starting a worldwide work on a large scale, the board of trustees this afternoon elected President Clark of the detail work of his office to permit him to travel about the world to effect closer interdenominational endeavor. He will still remain in office and there will be no diminution in his authority, but he will promote the interest of the work in writing and traveling to portions of the world where the organization is weak."

FAILS TO AGREE IN MURDER CASE

Vondermiller Disappointed That Verdict of Acquittal Was Not Rendered.

Washington, D. C., July 6.—Unable to agree upon a verdict, after deliberating for more than twenty hours, the jury in the case of Louis Vondermiller, charged with the killing of his brother-in-law, was discharged by Judge Thornton at 1 o'clock this afternoon. The jury stood seven for insanity and five for murder in the first degree. The failure of the jury to arrive at a verdict was a keen disappointment to counsel on both sides, and to Vondermiller himself, who had expected to be acquitted.

The case had been on trial for several days, and much interest was felt in the result.

WANT "TARE" REDUCED

Planters Declare It Means Annual Loss of Millions.
Atlanta, Ga., July 6.—A resolution asking President Taft, his Cabinet and the United States Department of Agriculture to take steps to reduce the 6 per cent "tare" on cotton baled for export, was introduced into the Georgia House of Representatives to-day by Representatives Kimbrough and Johnson. The 6 per cent "tare" represents the weight of cask, box, bag, canvas or bands in which the cotton is inclosed, which is deducted from the gross weight. It is pointed out that since the 6 per cent rule was adopted the weight of American cotton bales has increased and the weight of canvas, etc., has been decreased. As a result, planters declare, the South loses several million dollars each year.

New York, July 6.—Adolph Pricken, who led two detectives a chase over Europe, Asia, Africa and America for nearly a year, to-day was sentenced to Sing Sing prison for four years and five months, after pleading guilty to two indictments of grand larceny, second degree. Pricken was arrested in St. Paul, Minn., two months ago. He stole goods worth several thousand dollars from a big grocery firm here for which he worked.

In 1905 Pricken was imprisoned for stealing $22,000 from a dry goods house where he was bookkeeper, in Philadelphia.

Police Will Arrest Any One Using It Extravagantly.

Dayton, Ohio, July 6.—Police on motorcycles to-day are patrolling the city with instructions to arrest any one caught sprinkling or in any other way engaged in the extravagant use of water. At this time sections of the city, they say, would be at the mercy of flames in the case of fire.

NEIGHBORHOOD QUARRELS RESULT IN TWO KILLINGS

Waycross, Ga., July 6.—As the culmination of a neighborhood quarrel, Mrs. R. L. Robbins this afternoon shot and instantly killed Mrs. Bessie Smith, opposite the latter's home in Gilchrist Park, this city.

Mrs. Robbins was arrested, and is held without bail in the county jail. Mrs. Robbins recently caused the arrest of Mrs. Smith, charging her with a minor infraction of city ordinances.

Fayetteville, Ga., July 6.—John W. Gay, a farmer, was shot and killed on the public road near here to-day, and Henry Gargile, a neighbor, is under arrest in connection with the affair. The latter, it is stated, admitted doing the shooting, but claims self-defense. The two men recently had a dispute over a land line, which is believed to have led to the shooting.

Declares Prisoners Serving Sentence in Workhouse at Occoquan Are Legally Held.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Alexandria, Va., July 6.—According to a decision handed down by Judge Edmund Waddill, in the United States Court for the Eastern District of Virginia, this afternoon the habeas corpus proceedings in the case of Edgar Fisk and William Alexander, prisoners, serving a sentence of twelve months each in the District workhouse at Occoquan, Va., they are being legally held at that institution, and the court accordingly dismissed the writ.

Attorney Matthew E. O'Brien, of Washington, representing the prisoners, after the court announced its decision, noted an appeal in the case of Alexander, and asked that his client be permitted to give bond until the question of the appeal could be settled. The court refused bail, but decided that he could either go back to Occoquan or the District workhouse, and he chose the latter.

In handing down his decision Judge Waddill said that he had a great deal of difficulty in deciding whether or not the prisoners at Occoquan who had been sentenced by the courts of the District of Columbia to jail sentences of between six and twelve months could be legally sent to the workhouse, in an appropriation bill, such as was done in the present case.

After reviewing the whole matter, he said his decision was in the nature of an expedient, in view of hundreds of similar cases which might be brought before him for decision should he grant the habeas corpus proceedings.

BOY IS DROWNED IN TINKER CREEK

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Roanoke, Va., July 6.—Earl Penick, eight years old, was drowned in Tinker Creek, on the outskirts of the city, this afternoon while in bathing. Penick, in company with three playmates, was bathing in the creek. He went beyond his depth and became confused. Every effort made by the boys to save their companion was of no avail. The body was recovered by them about an hour afterwards. The drowned boy was the son of Mrs. Chas. G. Penick, a widow.

HAD WHISKEY HID
UNDER MANY EGGS

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Danville, Va., July 6.—Thirty gallons of whiskey, concealed under several dozen eggs and two chickens, were seized here to-night in a wagon just as the colored driver was driving across the river into the city to dispose of his goods. It is believed the negro was a go-between between a still in the county and a "blind tiger" in the city. The team, together with the whiskey, was confiscated by the officers and the negro lodged in jail.
